The Tucson Citizen is twenty years old and in all that time has never missed an issue. The CHAMpion sincerely hopes that it will never miss an issue, as it is the best Republican paper in Arizona.

The Globe Democrat comes out flat-footed against free coinage of silver, and takes the Denver convention to task for advocating it. It believes in the coinage of silver to meet the demands, but no more.

The conviction of J. J. Smith, the leader of the Canyon Diablo train robbers is a big feather in Arizona's Cap, and will tend largely to dispel the idea among the Eastern people, that this territory has no law.

We received recently a letter from a fellow in New York state, asking if there were any wild bananas growing on the Colorado river.
Well, the only bananas in this country are raised by the democrats, and grow very wild about election time.

CLAUS SPRECKLES recently told a Philadelphia interviewer that in his judgment there would be no move made towards the annexation of the Sandwich Islands, and that Blaine's idea is to take care of the interests of citizens at home and abroad and not reach out after other territory.

An exchange states that by a new process, and by means of perfected machinery, manufacturers in the East are making carpets out of cow's hair, claimed to be superior to woolen carpets. This industry will prove of great benefit to the cattle interests of the West in making a market for the hair as well as the hide.

Political affairs in Samoa are still in an unsettled condition. At the recent election held there Matafio was elected king and Malietoa vice king, and subsequently the followers of Tamasese elected Malietoa, king and Tamasese vice king. Both native and foreign residents look to the United States, Germany and England to straighten out affairs there.

Since people in the States are just learning that Arizona is the place for them. The climate here is dry, pure, water excellent; then they can have any degree of temperature they want at any season of the year by moving short distances, from the juicy valleys to the foothills and, if they want to, higher up in the mountains.—Prescott Courier.

The Cronin case still goes on in Chicago, and the Wham robbery case continues to hold the jurors to their seats in the "Ancient and Honorable Pueblo." The rivalry between the two places have heretofore been friendly, but should the Wham case hold on a few days longer than the one now on trial beside the big lake we fear the hate of the Chicagoans would everlastingly be directed against the "old pueblo."

Gov. PUGH furnishes the New Mexican an interesting interview regarding pardons of territorial prisoners. He states that all the evidence is public relating to each pardon granted by the territorial governor, and that they are granted only after close investigation and the taking of much testimony.

If this same policy had been pursued by Gov. ZULICK in this territory maybe there would be more criminal serving out their sentences, and Zulick's pocket book would not be quite so fat.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Newsp Notes from the National Capital.

Rumors that the President or Secretary Blaine favors the candidacy of this, that or other candidate for the Speakership of the House have been denied by both gentleman and a great feeling of uncertainty is in the air. The later candidates in the field are making war in common against Mr. Reed. They say he has always been against Western interest; that he is opposed to extended silver coinage, etc. They add that his claim of title to the speakership because he was the banner bearer when the honor was only an empty one, is absurd. They claim that the honor was only given him before at his earnest solicitation, as he believed it would help him to be elected to Congress. This talk comes mostly from friends of candidates other than Mr. McKinley, whose policy it is to be on good terms with Mr. Reed so that in the event of the election of either, the other will have the best committee of the House. Trading for committee ship will be brisk for the next two weeks. While all the candidates talk confidently of their chances, only three or four have any real faith in themselves.

Congressional visitors to the Executive Mansion complain bitterly of the difficulty of seeing the President.
They say that he has no time to give anyone but his cabinet officers. As these gentlemen have the entire attention of the President, it would seem unjust that they would monopolize the two hours given to other visitors. Almost every morning the carriages of two or three cabinet officers can be seen around the White House from 10 to 12 o'clock. A congressman who calls with a constituent and is turned away day after day naturally feels mortified. It humbles him and injures his strength at home.

The new Senators will begin their legislative career by asking such Senators as have seen the shortest service to combine with them for a re-organization of the force of Senate employees. The civil service system has so restricted the number of offices available for rewarding followers that a new deal is demanded. Old Senators, like Edmunds, Allison, Sherman and Hoar have gobbled up all the offices in sight and their followers have held them for a score of years. Senatorial courtesy in this matter as in others, is bound to receive a rude shock. The present officers of the Senate are greatly exercised over the rumor.

The fight for the exposition of 1892 was definitely opened the other day by the arrival of Colonel Jones and Governor Francis, of Missouri, the missionaries who are to give their reasons for their faith in the merit of St. Louis. Their headquarters are at Willard's. The Chicago representatives have been here for some time. The interests of the windy city before Congress will be looked after by ex First Assistant Postmaster General Allen E. Stevenson. The executive committee of the Washington promoters met last night but no definite action was taken. It is intended to give a dinner to the delegates to the Pan-American Congress early in December, probably about the 10th, as on that date the governors of the states interested in the Philadelphia centenary will all be in Washington.

The finance committee of the National Board of Promotion of the Three Americas exposition has issued a circular urging all the citizens of the District of Columbia to sign a memorial to Congress, asking that Washington be selected as the site for the World's Fair in 1892. The memorial proposes the issuance of $15,000,000 of District of Columbia bonds as a guarantee fund for the expenses of the exposition in case Congress should think it necessary.

The attempt of Delegate Hall, of England, and his associates to run the Maritime Conference to suit themselves was defeated the other day by the combination of the United States and South American delegates. The "Board at Whitehall" as it is called, opposed the congress from the first, and only joined in its deliberations by order of the government. The Board is the antiquated barrel that has for generations fixed marine regulations in Great Britain. When the conference was first proposed this organization felt shocked and grieved that any body of men on the face of the earth should have to supersede its authority. They did finally consent to enter the conference for the discussion of one subject only, viz: the "rules of the road." These settled they wou-refuse further participation in the deliberations. By the circumlocution office this state of affairs reached the ear of Lord Salisbury, who immediately ordered that the English delegates should participate in the entire conference. This order was imperative, but in revenge Messrs. Hall et al, have engaged passage for home for December 11, and endeavor by every possible means to rush through the business that must be completed before they leave. Business was rushed through last week in indecent haste without consideration or discussion.

The power of the press is unlimited. It attracts wealth from abroad, and makes known the resources and capabilities of the city or town.
Every advertisement in a local paper is an advertisement of the town—it is the voice of the merchant to his customer and to those who dwell at a distance. It acts in many different ways to benefit the town and increase its business prosperity. For these and various other reasons it is the part of patriotism and honesty for men interested in the growth and prosperity of a town or city to patronize those who patronize them, and to help support and build up home institutions rather than those abroad. In other words, advertise in your home papers and show distant communities that you can appreciate the efforts made to develop your town or city.—Las Vegas Optic.

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public.
Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick
